

DOLLAR DAY AUGUST 8

Dollars Day August 8

Today is the anniversary of the Continental Congress' establishment of the monetary system of the United States. In celebration of Dollar Day, why not offer a dollar menu at various stations throughout your servery. It may encourage your customers to add an extra item on to their meal, attract non users with the low prices or increase non traditional day parts by offering affordable snacking options.

Below are a list of recipes that are all at a 35% food cost or less. You can also use the advanced smart menu search to find recipes with a certain dollar amount per portion, if you would like to explore other options.

You can also hold a dollar days trivia contest. You can have a different trivia questions at each station or offer all questions on one piece of paper. You can offer a book of $1 off couples to a limited number of winners.
